

ALLRISE DC invites you to join the conversation on

The Importance of Gender Diversity to Your Company's Bottom Line

A number of recent studies – including one issued by the Federal Reserve Board – highlight the correlation between increased gender diversity in senior levels of an organization and improved company performance. Hear from a panel of bank executives about the importance of a diverse workplace to their organizations' culture and productivity, and how they are achieving results.

Panelists

- Kieran Fallon, Senior Deputy General Counsel at PNC Financial Services Group
- Kimberly Manigault, Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer at KeyCorp
- Tina Sandford, Head of Human Resources Operations at Silicon Valley Bank

Moderators (and co-founders of ALLRISE DC)

- Amy Friend, Senior Advisor at FS Vector and former Chief Counsel of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency
- Sally Miller, former CEO of the Institute of International Bankers

Event Details

Date: Wednesday, May 22, 2019

Time: 6:00 pm (Panel discussion followed by a reception)

Location: American Bankers Association
1120 Connecticut Ave NW, 7th Floor
Washington, DC 20036

RSVP: Open to financial services professionals in government, industry, trade associations and law firms, this event is intended to comply with the reception exception of the congressional gift rules. Click HERE to RSVP.

Contact: ALLRISE DC's Amy Friend or Sally Miller.

ALLRISE DC is a newly established organization working to lift women's careers in financial services through mentoring, networking and education.

This program is hosted by the American Bankers Association